Empower Data-Driven Decisions

With predictive and actionable analytics

There are thousands of devices you need to manage, and if they're not operating at their best, they can disrupt your operations and slow down productivity.

Mobile computer compound annual growth¹

Gain Fleet-wide Insights From One Dashboard

Prevent downtime and unexpected repair costs by gaining device health and utilization data for your entire fleet—from mobile computers to printers, and now scanners. Keep operations running at their peak, and workers connected throughout an entire shift, enabling data-driven decisions for your business.

Executives say operational insights could significantly improve decision making²

Expand the Impact of Your MDM With Insights It's More Than an MDM

Zebra VisibilityIQ™ Foresight goes beyond simple device management. It provides operational insights on historical data trending, current state health and actionable, predictive intelligence to prevent issues and empower informed decisions.

What if I have an MDM or in-house system already?

Zebra VisibilityIQ™ Foresight complements your system by integrating with your MDM to extract your data and combine ours to provide the actionable insights your current system can't provide on its own. And if you don't have an MDM, Zebra VisibilityIQ™ Foresight can share device insights alone.

5 Ways to Benefit from Zebra APIs

1. Eliminate multiple data sources and interfaces
2. Create customized views
3. Integrate data into existing systems
4. Automate actions based on targeted insights
5. Get detailed support and repair statuses on your devices

Zebra VisibilityIQ™ Foresight provides value to your operations tailored to your business.
